THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

On behalf of The Philadelphia Association of Paralegals, we are extremely excited to be able to host this year's Education Conference at the Pennsylvania Bar Institute. It promises to be a fun-filled day of learning and networking!

The Art of Being a Paralegal is the theme of this year's Education Conference. What do we mean by saying that being a paralegal is an art? Well, according to the Merriam-Webster dictionary, an "art" is "new skills acquired by experience, study and observation," which is exactly what we hope you will gain by attending this Conference.

We are excited to have A. Harold Datz, Of Counsel to Haggerty, Goldberg, Schleifer & Kupersmith, P.C., as this year's keynote speaker. Mr. Datz is a well-known trial attorney and has represented individuals in a wide variety of personal injury matters. He is a member of the Philadelphia Trial Lawyers Association, the Pennsylvania Association for Justice, the American Association for Justice, the Pennsylvania Bar Association and the Philadelphia Bar Association, and in 2012, was appointed to serve as a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association Judicial Evaluation Commission. Mr. Datz also serves as a Senior Hearing Committee Member for the Disciplinary Board of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. We are thrilled that Mr. Datz has graciously given of his time to share with us his views and experiences.

As for the rest of the Conference, our Education Committee Chair and past president, Lyndora Patterson Tiller, and the entire Education Committee have spent the majority of this year planning a spectacular conference, as you will see from the offerings in this brochure. Please see the Registration Form of this brochure for an outline of our outstanding lineup of seminars. We anticipate that by the Conference date, each course will be approved by The National Federation of Paralegal Associations and the Keystone Alliance of Paralegal Associations for 1.25 continuing legal education credits each. As usual, it will be difficult to choose between the 16 exciting topics and their dynamic and esteemed presenters.

PAP would also like to extend a special thank you to our vendor sponsors and encourage our members to use their services before using a competitor. Don't miss your chance to meet with our sponsors attending the conference and check out some of the wonderful giveaways!

We look forward to seeing you at the 2015 Education Conference!

Sincerely,

REPORTING & VIDEO

Court Reporting Technology

Zanaras Reporting and Video specializes in class action, pharmaceutical, commercial litigation, medical malpractice, product cases, and aviation law. Our court reporters and certified shorthand reporters are trained extensively and are highly skilled to produce top-quality depositions.

Realtime technology allows court reporters to instantly convert their stenographic notes into English text. The text can then be displayed on computer screens or TV monitors that are located throughout the courtroom. This feature enables the attorney to have immediate access of the written sworn testimony to prepare for litigation the following day.

The Video Advantage

Our courteous, experienced Legal Videographers employ a state-of-the-art process that compresses HD video format with the transcript text and fully synchronized video onto a DVD. This allows for instantaneous retrieval of testimony with crisp video playback.

In addition, we use non-linear editing to deliver the precise edits required by the court and our clients. Our video specialists are highly experienced in "day in the life" documentation, accident scenes, and demonstrative evidence.

Quality Without Compromise

Zanaras Reporting and Video is noted for its unique ability to give personalized service and attention to every client. SESSION III

2:00 PM - 3:15 PM

ESTATES & TRUSTS

Small and Insolvent Estate Administrations

When an estate is small (or insolvent), the focus often shifts from serving the beneficiaries to protecting the executors or administrators from possible personal liability to creditors. This session will look at the rights of creditors and beneficiaries under Pennsylvania law, the potential liabilities of the personal representative under both Pennsylvania and federal law (for federal taxes and other federal claims), and the steps that can be taken to protect the personal representatives from those potential liabilities. Because estates are sometimes insolvent because of assets passing outside of the estate, such as through trusts, joint ownership, transfer on death designations, individual retirement accounts, and other arrangements, the potential liabilities of the beneficiaries of those assets will also be discussed, along with the role (if any) of the personal representative in dealing with those assets and any claims to those assets.

REAL ESTATE

Guarantees and Non-Recourse Language in Commercial Loans

To combat deflation of commercial real estate values and protect interests when the borrower defaults, commercial real estate lenders are pursuing high net-worth guarantors for repayment of their non-recourse loans. Counsel to borrowers and lenders must anticipate the serious pitfalls in using carve-outs in so-called non-recourse loans and must understand the operative provisions of the “springing recourse” and bad-boy guaranties. Uncertainty on non-recourse carve-out guaranties remains an issue. Mr. Passerin will discuss guaranty enforceability, the scope of liability, the maximum amount recoverable from the guarantor, legal developments in the use and enforcement of commercial real estate loan guaranties, carve-outs in non-recourse provisions, and other recent case law. He will also discuss strategies for resolving disputes involving these provisions.
